A.E.W.LP

The Organization:

A.E.W. LP was formed in 2017 by Nlaka'pamux Nation Tribal Council member communities to carry out "on the ground" work related to archaeology, the environment and wildlife protection. This work has been made necessary by activities of others within the Nlaka'pamux homeland including transportation, mining, forestry, oil and gas, and utilities projects. The Nlaka'pamux Nation Tribal Council is not opposed to development within our homeland, but developments and activities must be consistent with Nlaka'pamux title and rights.

The Role:

A.E.W. Limited Partnership (A.E.W. LP) is seeking a dedicated full-time Supervising Archaeologist based in the Southern Interior or Lower Mainland of British Columbia. In this role, you will play a crucial part in coordinating and overseeing archaeological projects, ensuring smooth operations and effective communication across all project aspects while guided by the Nlaka'pamux fundamental principle of "we take care of the land, and the land will take care of us." Reporting to the Director of Archaeology, the Supervising Archaeologist will:

- Assist the Director of Archaeology and Field Directors with project coordination, scheduling and communication with crews.
- Assisting with incident reporting in compliance with project specifications.
- Communicating with field staff and procurement of supplies and equipment as needed.
- Assist the day-to-day project coordination.
- Liaising with subcontractors and suppliers during project execution.
- Reviewing team resourcing requirements and adjusting as needed.
- Conducting background research and report review
- Planning and logistics for field projects
- Liaising with community members and NNTC personnel
- Conducting survey and shovel testing
- Recording and maintaining accurate field notes and photographic records
- Collecting and logging GPS data
- Site mapping using survey-grade equipment and/or chain and compass
- Planning and executing evaluative unit excavations
- Drawing EU profiles and recording layer characterizations
- Training and mentoring field crew
- Submitting complete daily field paperwork to the Project Manager for approval
- Assisting with report mapping

"Take care of the land, and the land will take care of you."

- Supervising more junior staff and other field workers where appropriate
- Preparing summary, interim and final reports

Requirements:

- Graduate degree in Archaeology or Anthropology or an undergraduate degree with equivalent experience
- On track to receive Field Director status for the Interior Plateau B.C. or other area
- 2-4 years demonstrated experience in B.C. heritage resource management (or equivalent)
- Valid driver's licence

What makes you exceptional:

- Knowledge and experience in adhering to occupational health & safety practices
- Strong technical, mapping and reporting ability
- Proficiency with MS Word and MS Excel
- Experience working within a team environment
- Experience working with Indigenous Communities
- Valid First Aid certification (Level 1)
- BC-based archaeology field school (or equivalent)

What makes AEW LP special?

- Employee centered with the opportunity for personal development and growth.
- Be apart of company that is inclusive and thriving.
- A Competitive compensation package with extensive overtime and safety allowances.
  - Wage ranges from $35 - $39 per hour depending on experience.
- A Matching Group Retirement Pension program of up to 6%
- An Extended Health and Dental program
- Paid Vacation with additional time off during the holiday season.
- Flexible work schedules with work from home opportunities.
